

Leaders for Geelong participants have an unrivalled opportunity to contribute to meeting the challenges for Geelong and taking opportunities to create a successful and satisfying future.

Quite simply, leadership development of this calibre and scope is not available anywhere else in Geelong.

And the graduates say...

"The program really opened my eyes to parts of Geelong that I didn't know a lot about. It made me challenge myself in terms of my thoughts around certain issues faced within the region."

Jade Ibrahimovic

"My work environment can be very isolating. After completing Leaders for Geelong, I have a much better understanding of local issues and I feel connected with like-minded professionals."

Mick Trotter

"Seeing both peers and presenters in the Leaders for Geelong Program confirmed my interest in community involvement. It provided the motivation to do it now, rather than put it off by saying I was too busy or too young or didn't have enough to offer. I've learnt I have a lot to offer and I want to share that with my clients, staff, community and the region."

Beth King

"I know now that whatever role I have to play, regardless of how challenging, I can step up. The program showed me that my ability to influence others is my greatest asset."

Helen Long

"I've started looking at things a bit differently. Six months in and the program is opening my eyes to ways I can contribute. It's put a spotlight on personal awareness; of who I am and how I relate to others."

Tamara Bolger

"Without the Leaders for Geelong program I doubt whether I would have started my own business. I wouldn't have the market knowledge or the networks. I am now really interested in the region's economic development and am playing an active role in the community. I am at a point where I want to make things happen, and I'm now in a position where I can do that. For me, actions speak louder than words."
